For Secretary

Amenthiahal kanal was roughly measured at 661 acres, but after the receipt of the Akkanad from the Survey Superintendent, the correct total extent was ascertained to be 632—5 inclusive of a Kharab of 218—31. Thus, only 413—14 gland is available for cultivation, out of which only 399—26 are reported to be now under occupation, the remaining being unoccupied. The tabular statement is herewith, resubmitted together with the Vernacular papers connected with the case, owing with Imarai Secretary's Rubakari No. 1297 dated 12th May 1897, for needful reference and kind transmission to the Imarai Secretary for disposal
